

I am writing to voice my opposition to the Indiana Bankers association's attempt to weaken the Indiana telephone privacy law. I am very content with the law as it stands.